Foreword

"Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me."

Man's basic desire is the achievement of happiness and peace. As individuals, this impulse motivates us to seek a better way of life. Our Catholic Education has provided us with strong, moral characters to serve as a foundation for building a newer and more meaningful life. As Christians, we enter today's world with the hope that this foundation will aid us in our judgement of tomorrow's problems. By courage and faith in God, we anticipate the chance to see life realistically and to make mature decisions. As we graduate from Bishop McCort, we should not consider it the end, but rather the beginning — an opportunity to meet new people and to cross new horizons. With this purpose in mind, the seniors emerge into the world with an awareness and a deeper understanding of the problems they will encounter and hopefully, overcome.

Peacemakers: they shall be the Children of God.

Student Council

Senior Members of Student Council

The Student Council, the oldest and perhaps the most notable of all school organizations, is in reality a conglomeration of every student function, presiding over and assisting each. Student government, especially in recent years, has been increasing in importance and prestige, for the realization has come to light that individuals can work within the structure for the general welfare. Not only does this association attempt to produce responsible and dedicated leaders, but also responsible, dedicated followers.

Senior members of N.H.S.

The Aquinian Chapter of the National Honor Society draws its membership from those students who exemplify the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service This year, the club's activities included a very successful Book Fair and sponsorship of the Scholastic Quiz competition for all grade levels. Under the capable direction of Miss Mulvehill and Miss Henning, the NHS contributes concrete achievements toward the betterment of the entire school.

Mu Alpha Theta

E. Dropcho, Secretary; J. Adams, President; D. Ross, Treasurer; Sr. Ann Horgan, Moderator; R. Racosky, Vice-president.

The Mu Alpha Theta is a national honor organization comprised of students who have proven themselves outstanding in the field of mathematics. With the indispensable assistance of Sister Ann Horgan, the club has sponsored several projects, including an Orientation Day for incoming freshmen. Throughout the year, Mu Alpha Theta members matched wits in math game competition that proved both educational and fun.

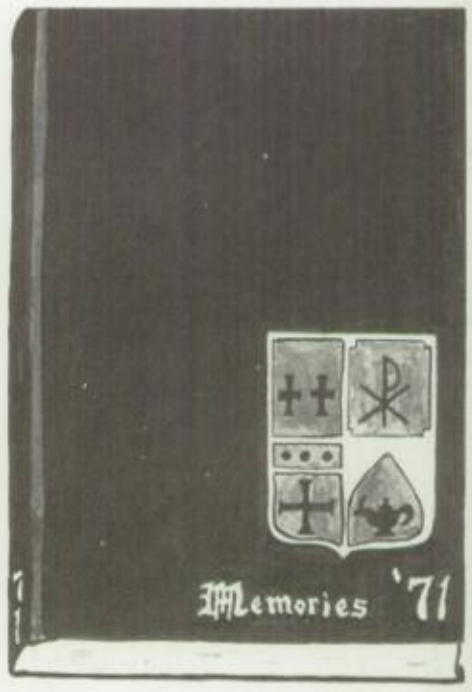
Hard at work are members of the sports and business staffs.

Memories Staff Leaders: Karen Brezovec and Jim Skubak, Co-editors; John Leahey, Business Manager.

Sister Mary Margaret, Moderator.

The members of the yearbook staff devote countless hours to the sifting and organizing of material for use in "Memories." In order to meet deadlines for publication, the editors and staff practically "live" in the Activities Room. Guided by a dedicated moderator, Sister Mary Margaret, the staff works toward a better-than-ever yearbook that makes all the toil worthwhile.



Making plans for "Memories '71" are Jim Skubak, Sister Mary Margaret, Karen Brezovec, and John Leahey.

Core of Senior "Pep".

The Pep Club performs the enormous task of promoting school spirit of all school functions. Among this year's activities were the organization of the pep rallies, the Spirit Parade, Senior Night and the Sports Banquet. The Club also assisted the Student Council with Homecoming. Its members spend hour after hour in the 'girls' locker room painting signs for all the games, and working toward the preservation of the Spirit of '71.

Art Club

This year's Art Club has performed many indispensable services for the entire student body. Spending long hours after school, the members painted cafeteria windows for both Christmas and the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Directed by Mrs. Rees, the club visited the Johnstown Poster Advertising Company, and the Allied Artists to get first hand information about career opportunities.

Helping the needy in a small way at Thanksgiving.

The members of the Spanish Club, besides pursuing a knowledge of Spanish language and culture, have displayed a spirit of human concern that sets a fine example for the entire school. At Thanksgiving, the members donated food baskets to be given to a needy family in the Johnstown area. In addition, these students, under the guidance of their moderator, Sister Marie Colette, have taken on the responsibility of correspondence with the school's foster child, Carlos.

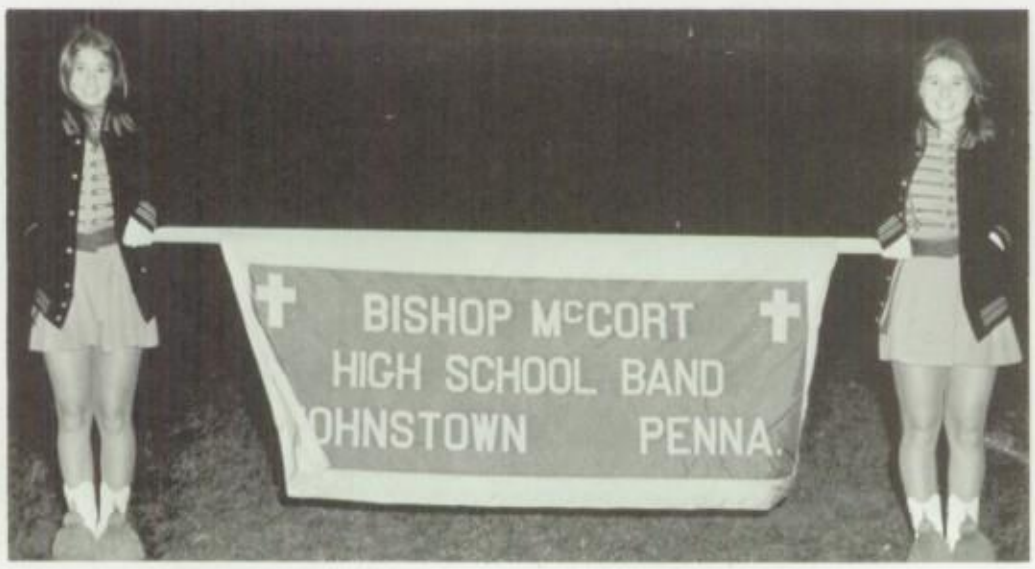
Our Band

Senior Members

The Band en masse.

The B.M.H.S. Band, directed by Mr. Signorino, has long been a well-organized, spirited group whose achievements have passed relatively unnoticed. The consistently fine performances given by this group are testimony to the long hours of work involved in preparation for concerts, games and pep rallies. One has only to travel as far as Roxbury Park in the summer, or music room one during schooltime, to view the band members working diligently toward even greater accomplishments.



The Orchestra is comprised of students interested in classic and symphonic music. Directed by Mr. Signorino and Mr. Scileny, the Orchestra performed at the National Honor Society induction in the spring.

Business Club

OFFICERS: Cindy Thomas, executive secretary; Gloria Gallucci, assistant secretary; Marian Fatula, assistant secretary; Sister M. Jeanne, moderator.

Developing character and business skills for the future.

The Business Club is comprised of senior commercial students who perform many invaluable services for students as well as teachers. The girls devote their free time to typing tests, report cards, grade sheets and other necessary forms which contribute to the smooth functioning of our school. Moderated by Sister Jeanne, OSF, the Business Club has proven itself a valuable asset to Bishop McCort.

Forensics

The Bishop McCort Chapter of the National Forensic League involves students in interscholastic debate, oratory and public speaking. Under the guidance of Sister Veronica and Father Rager, the club participates in a full schedule of Forensic competition. It hosted a debate tournament november 14 at the school.

Future Teachers of America

OFFICERS: K. Horoho, sec.; Stephanie Bartos, v. pres.; Sue Edwards, pres.; Ann Krueger, treas.; and Miss Henning, moderator.

The Future Teachers of America offers its members an opportunity to learn about the teaching profession and explore their own interests in its various fields. Through an active point program, the FTA members aid teachers in checking papers and doing other related work. Moderated by Miss Henning, the club, in its first year at Bishop McCort, has made many valuable contributions to the entire school.

Projector Club

Because educational films are frequently presented by the faculty, the knowledge and skills of the Projector Club members promise a better audio-visual service for the school.

Chess Club

The Chess Club gives BMHS students an opportunity to challenge their competitive abilities and powers of deep concentration. Frequent matches are held with Mr. Hollern presiding as moderator.

Chapel Committee

The members of the Chapel Committee devote their time and effort to the care of the Chapel and Sacristy. Under the supervision of Sister Germaine, these students make preparation for Mass and perform many other related tasks.

Ski Club

A new addition to BMHS wide range of activities — the Ski Club — has been enthusiastically adopted by the student body. Moderated by Mr. Huddy, the Ski Club offers further recreation opportunities to the students at BMHS.

Ooh, La, La — Romance

"When you ride in the Soob-way."

Mr. Signorino's pride and joy — his orchestra. Their performance was great.

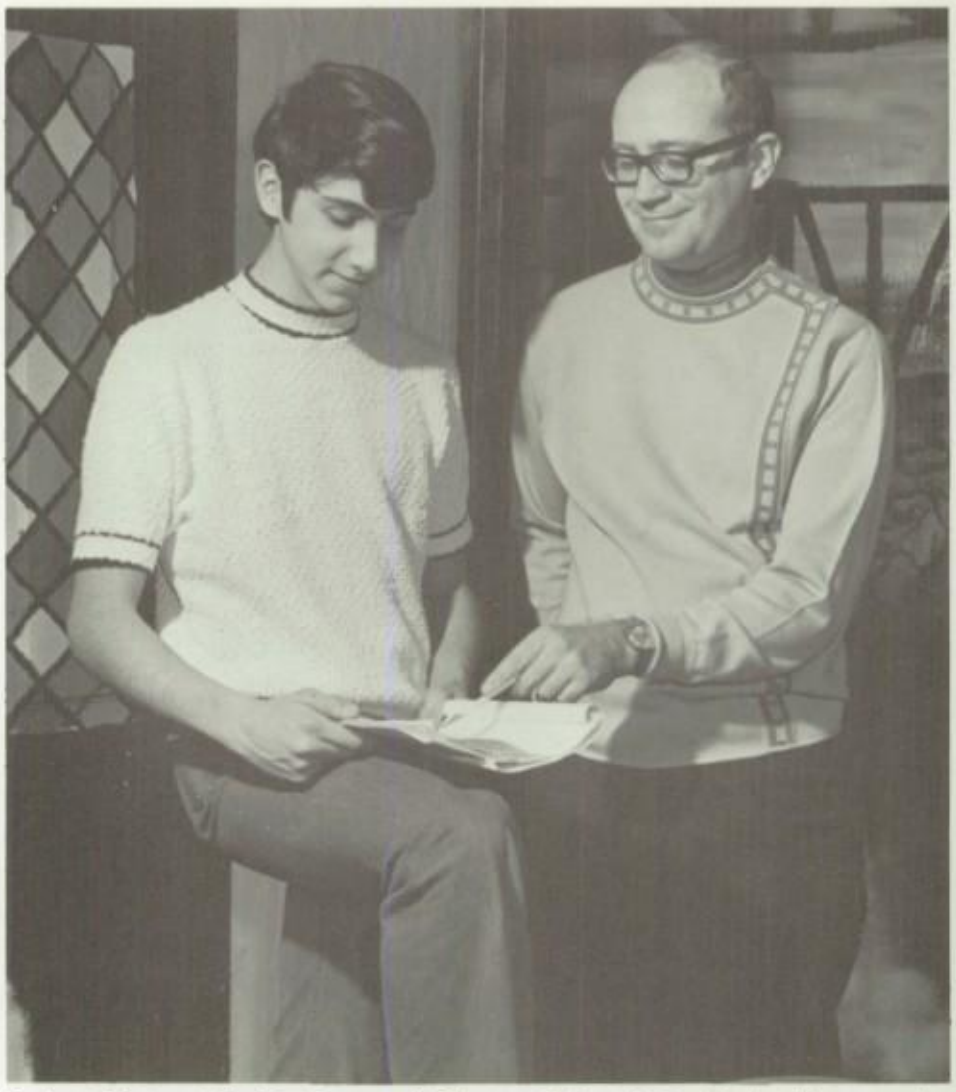
Service with a smile.

So this is Paris, eh?

This is more than a budding romance.

The Stingiest Man in Town

On December 20 and 21, the Choral Department presented a short adaptation of Charles Dickens famous novel, A Christmas Carol. "The Stingiest Man in Town" was presented during the first half of the Christmas festival, "Christmas In The Air." This was the first time a Christmas musical was presented along with the traditional singing of Christmas carols. The performance was a success due to the hard work and participation of all the members of the choruses.



Student Director Charles Katter and Director Father McCamley looking over the script.

Scrooge being "haunted" by the Christmas ghosts and Jacob Marley.

The "merry" carolers who provided the narration for the play.

Pat Romano, Jim Ruth and Phil Brezovic as Scrooge, Bob Cratchit and Tiny Tim.

The stage crew moving props for a rehearsal.

Rag — picker Hawkins and Mrs. Dilbert, the charwoman, on the subject: "How could anybody be so stingy."

Christmas dinner with the Cratchits.

"The 400 Chorusters of Bishop McCort" who comprised the second half of the Christmas program.

In Apple Blossom Time

Beautiful scenery provides a romantic setting for this happy couple.

CHAPERONES: Mr. and Mrs. Mihalik; Mr. and Mrs. Clark; Mr. and Mrs. Racosky; Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

Dave and Jim with their dates Kathy and Patty.

Smiling faces reflect the success of the evening.

"A Time For Us."

"The Men of Rhythm."

On May 22, 1970, the Class of '71 presented the Junior-Senior Prom. In a romantic atmosphere of blossoms and candlelight, happy couples danced to the music of the Men of Rhythm and strolled the spacious grounds of Green Gables, in Jennerstown. The long hours of preparation for this event were rewarded by a lovely evening and an even lovelier memory.

Some more happy people.

A Touch of Winter Magic

Ron and Sue, Mary Pat and Bob adding a touch of warmth to a cold winter scene.

On December 30, 1970, the Senior Class added "A Touch of Winter Magic" to the holidays with its presentation of the annual Christmas Dance at the Masonic Temple. In a glistening setting of soft snow and evergreens, the couples enjoyed each other's company while dancing to the music of the University Trio.

Dave Cavanaugh and Bobbie Klug, Barb Hite and Dave Ellis, Kevin Decker and Barb Staib.

Joyce, Bob, Marcia and Mike enjoying a bite to eat.

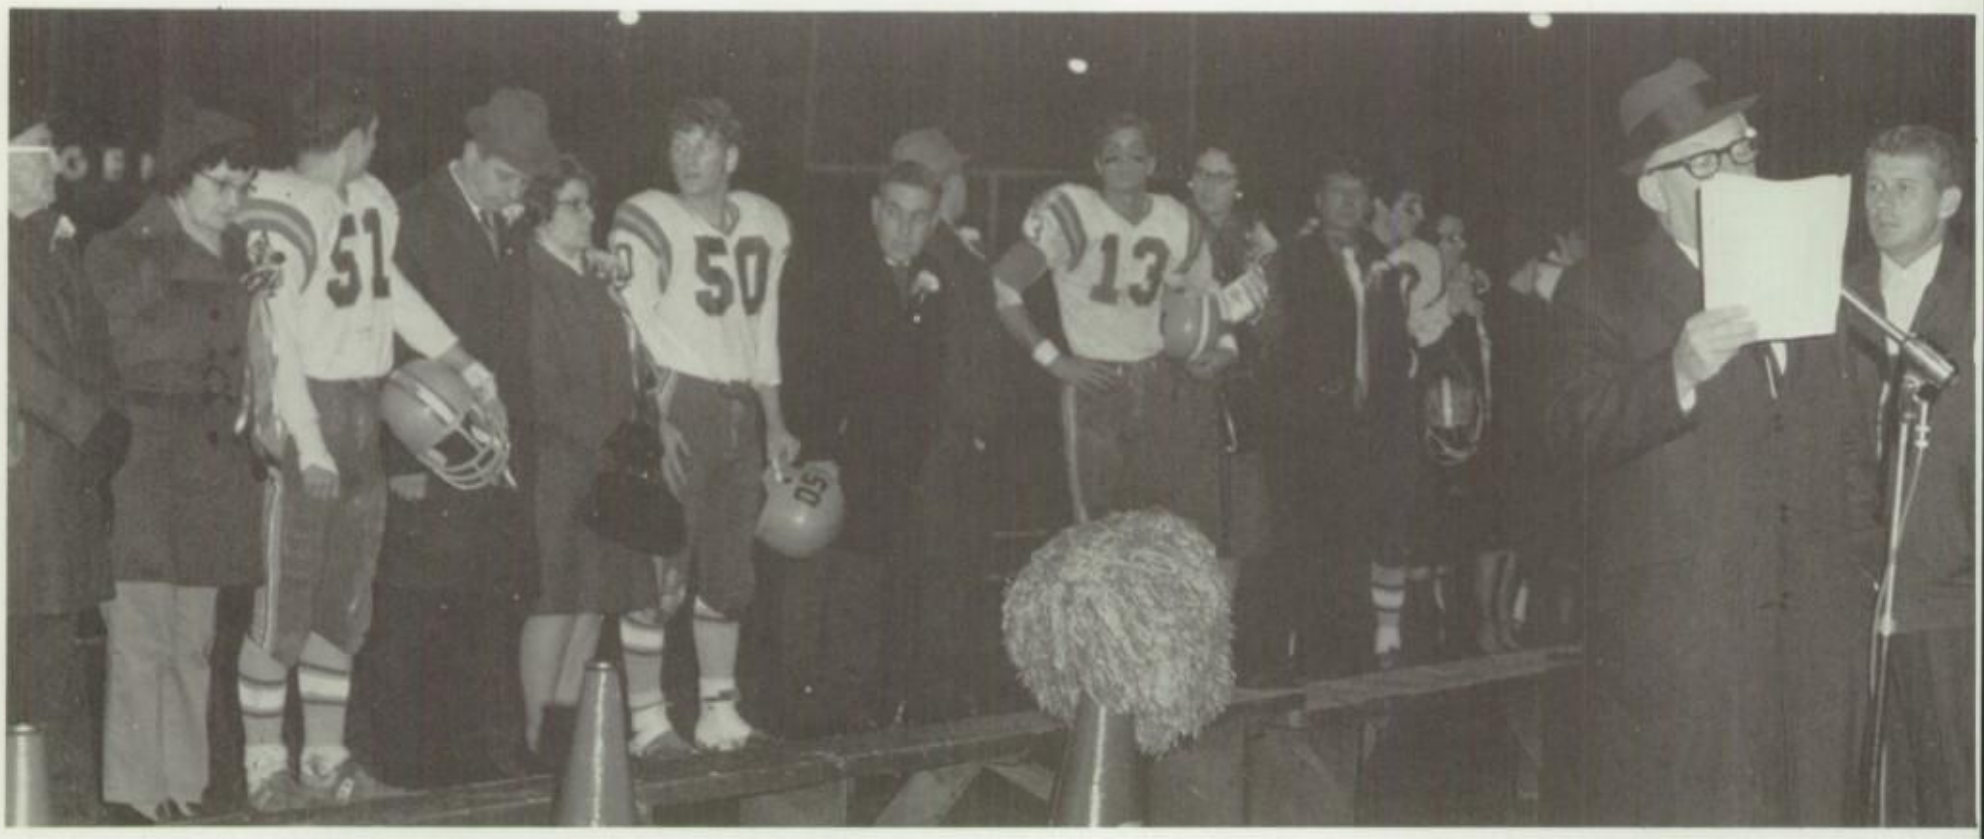
Parent's Night



Sheriff Cavanaugh introduces "Parents Night."

"Babs" leads a strong wall.

Jim Bradley was honored for the 1970 Football Season for being the only area player named to both the offensive and defensive units of the Associated Press All-Pennsylvania teams. For 104 tackles in the season he was placed on the first all-state defensive squad. He holds many pass-catching records, which placed him on the second offensive team. Jim was also one of two repeaters on the All-Pittsburgh Catholic League All-Star Team. For his outstanding seasonal performance, he was given the Tribune Democrat Football Scholarship Award.

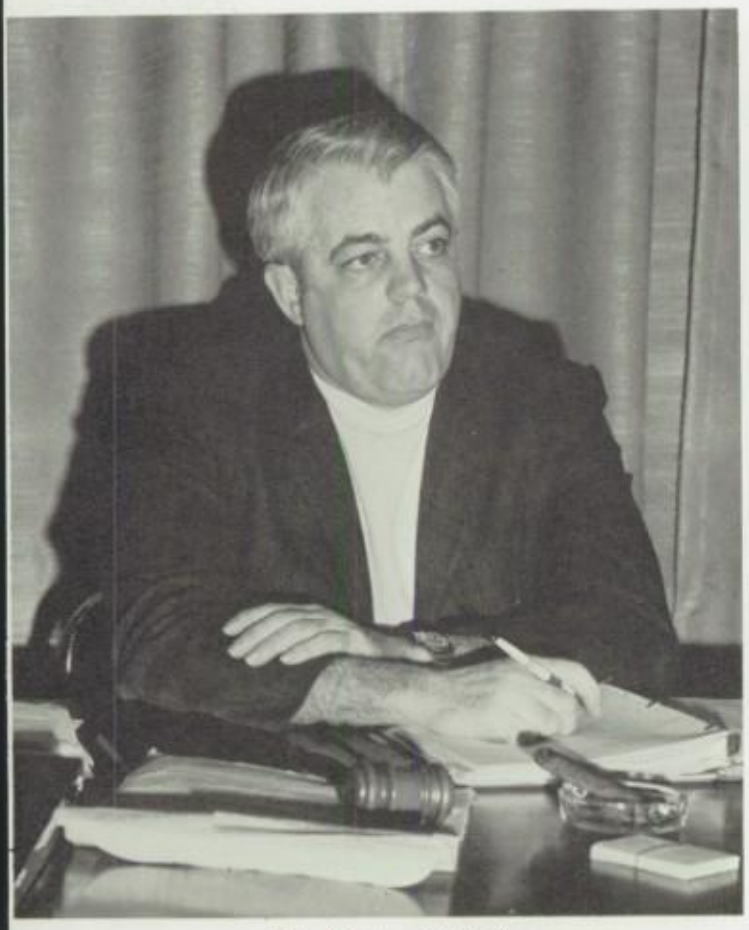
Intramural Fieldball

Field ball is another intramural sport, organized by Mr. Hollern with help from Mr. Fletcher. It provides much exercise, since it is a fast sport very similar to soccer. The boys who participate organize their teams early so as to practice and get ready for the rugged and sometimes muddy field at Roxbury Park. Playing in the spring season, the boys agree that it is a worthwhile, healthful activity.



Mr. Keelan, Athletic Association President

Johnstown Catholic Athletic Association

The Athletic Association sponsors all of McCort's inter-scholastic sports endeavors. Without their help, most of the activities would be impossible. They find all of the equipment necessary from uniforms to medical facilities. So a hearty thanks from the students goes to these men who devote their energy to make Bishop McCort better and better.

Girls' Track

Spring brings many enjoyable things: flowers, sunshine and girls track. Track is one sport in which the girls show they have as much athletic ability as the boys. Under the able direction of Mrs. Stibich the girls had a profitable season.

Cross Country

All success of the Cross-Country team goes to Mr. Probst. He started the sport, here at McCort in 1969, and really "got things going" up at Roxbury Park. His 1970 season Harriers tried hard for the "lowest point" spot, and sport these scores.

B.M.H.S.	29½	Vo Tech 28½
B.M.H.S.	28	Indiana 27

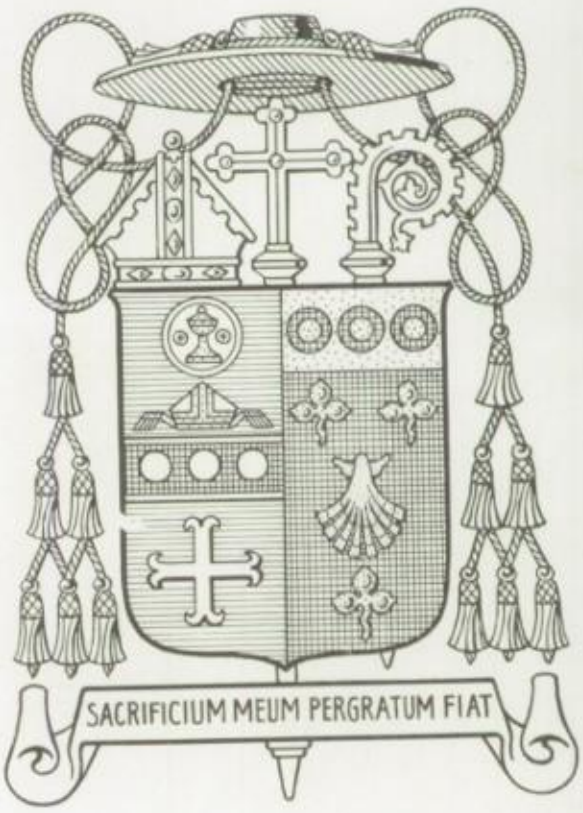
The Most Reverend James J. Hogan Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown Diocese



W.F. & R. Co.

To meet the problems of this ever-changing world, strong leaders are necessary to provide direction and instill confidence into the hearts of the people. One qualification for leadership is that a person must have an ideal that he himself strives to imitate — the perfect exemplar in Jesus Christ. The students of Bishop McCort discover these essential characteristics in their principal, Father Hovanec. His role calls for the possession of more than a dual personality; he must be a combination of director, leader, counselor, and friend. As we, the seniors, matured during our high school years, we began to recognize the understanding and dedication which Father Hovanec utilized to prepare us for the role of "leaders of tomorrow."

We can never fully express our thanks and appreciation to him in preparing us to accept the challenges and responsibilities of today's world. However, we can sincerely say with all our hearts "Thank You, Father" for the opportunities to become a better person, scholastically and socially.

Class of '71

Reverend Richard S. Hovanec,
Principal

Fr. Hovanic commends the two top semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Test: Christine Cartwright and Ann Krueger.

Reverend James F. Bunn,
Vice-Principal

Managing activities, setting up schedules, arranging programs, interviewing students — these are some of the many duties for which Rev. James Bunn is responsible. We seniors are aware of the time and energy expended on these tasks. We are grateful, Rev. James Bunn, for any assistance you have given us in our four years of high school. You will always be in our "Memories."

Rev. Bunn congratulates Regina La Rocca, David Pavlick and Gerard Kubej for their efforts on the yearbook drive.

REV. THOMAS K. MABON, Superintendent of Schools

SISTER HILDA MARIE, CSJ

REVEREND CHARLES RAGER

In order to secure success and fulfillment one must be able to meet the challenges of life with confidence and maturity. This awareness of life stems from the essential counseling and materials obtained from the guidance department.

We the senior class of '71 express our deepest appreciation for the patience and understanding displayed by our guidance counselors, Sister Hilda Marie, SSJ and Father Rager.

Guidance is the road to maturity.
